

FRIDAY • DYDD GWENER 22-03-24

- 13.00 Land and Sea Links since Dewi Sant in 6th Century
Talk in the Cathedral Library by Mari James. Includes a display of local and world maps from 1610 onwards. Please note: access to the Library is via a medieval spiral stone staircase.
Venue: St Davids Cathedral Library
FREE - booking essential on the Cathedral's Eventbrite
- 14.00 Open Cathedral Library
For a general visit and browse of historical books and maps.
- 15.00 Family Arts Workshop
A fun-filled, hands-on arts workshop with the Pirates of Tir a Mor.
Venue: The City Hall FREE - booking essential on Eventbrite
- 17.00 Film: My Extinction
A documentary film by Josh Appignanesi, (15) 80 minutes. What does it take for us to act on the climate crisis, especially if we're the kind of person who should already be acting? Includes bar discussion afterwards.
Venue: Ty'r Pererin £5. Book on Eventbrite, tickets on the door.
- 19.30 The Tir a Môr Twmpath!
Join us for a lively Ceilidh dance with Off the Cuff. Get ready to kick up your heels and have a blast! Food available.
Venue: St Davids Rugby Club
£7.50. Book on Eventbrite, tickets on the door.

SATURDAY • DYDD SADWRN 23-03-24

- 10.00 The Future of the Crown Estate in Wales Refreshments available
A panel discussion with audience question and answer, looking at The Crown's future significance for Pembrokeshire.
John Osmond Chair, former Director of the Institute of Welsh Affairs, with:
Nick Tune Commissioner for National Infrastructure Commission for Wales
Rebecca Williams Director for Crown Estate, Wales
Tom Sawyer Chief Executive Officer of Port of Milford Haven
Beth Winter Labour MP for Cynon Valley
Venue: St Davids City Hall £5. Book on Eventbrite, tickets on door
- 11.00 Foraging for Seaweed Tour
Join us on a wild adventure exploring the seashore with Really Wild. Suitable for all the family. Venue: Whitesands Car Park
FREE - booking essential on Eventbrite
- 12.00 Local Food Producers' Market
Includes a Brix Testing Workshop (food quality testing of how well a plant has been grown). Bring your own raw food, self-grown or purchased, to test and compare. Venue: Ty'r Pererin FREE
- 14.00 Thrice to Rome
Dramatisation of Gerallt Gymro's three trials in the Court of Pope Innocent III (Rome, 1200-03), trying to secure St Davids Cathedral's independence from Canterbury.
Venue: Cathedral Quire Book on the Cathedral's EventBrite.
Tickets also available at the Cathedral Nave shop.

- 14.00 Creating Communities on Land and Sea Refreshments available
Talk by Siân Richardson Founder: The Bluetits and Porthmawr Lifesaving Club.
Venue: St Davids City Hall £5. Book on Eventbrite, tickets on door
- 16.00 On the Ground Beneath our Feet
Farming now, and in the future, for community resilience - a panel discussion with audience question and answer. Chris Sayner Chair, with: Gerald Miles COCA; Alma Joensen Grower, Caeriad CIC and COCA; Will Scale National Friendly Farming Network and no-till farmer; Abigail Meyrick Sustainability Executive, Puffin Produce; Tracey Gilbert-Falconer Câr-y-Môr seaweed fertiliser; Dr Sarah Beynon St Davids Bug Farm.
Venue: St Davids City Hall £5. Book on Eventbrite, tickets on door
- 17.45 Land and Sea-themed Really Wild Dinner
and 3 courses for £42.00. Venue: Really Wild Emporium
20.30 Book on Eventbrite or through Really Wild Emporium
- 18.00 Voices in the Wind / Llesiau yn y Gwynt
A Beacons Cymru hosted panel discussion on the successes, challenges and opportunities of working in the music industry in West Wales. Host Alexandra Jones Beacons Cymru, Forté Project with Steve Prior Boia Festival, Boia Gigs, Tim Rees Unearthed Festival, Lowri Prior-Smith Tŷ Sŵn and trailblazing DIY musician, Rona Mac.
Venue: Ty'r Pererin FREE
- 19.30 Rona Mac and Friends
A live music event showcasing some of the best new music in Wales, with Rona Mac, Tomos Newman and Nookee (acoustic).
Venue: Ty'r Pererin £8. Book on Eventbrite, tickets on the door

SUNDAY • DYDD SUL 24-03-24

- 10.00 Family-friendly Talk and Workshop hosted by Câr-y-Môr
Learn about Câr-y-Môr, Wales' first regenerative seaweed and shellfish farm and be introduced to seaweed identification and tasting.
Venue: Oriel-y-Parc FREE - booking essential on Eventbrite
- 11.30 Be Spellbound!
An extraordinary painting and poetry experience presented by the renowned illustrator of The Lost Words, Jackie Morris and award winning poet, Mererid Hopwood, who translated the book into Welsh; followed by a tour of The Lost Words Exhibition at Oriel y Parc. Suitable for all ages.
Venue: Oriel-y-Parc FREE - booking essential on Eventbrite
- All information is correct at the time of printing but may be subject to change. Thank you for your support!

Venue addresses

St Davids Cathedral The Pebbles, St Davids, Haverfordwest SA62 6RD
City Hall High Street, St Davids, Haverfordwest SA62 6SD
Ty'r Pererin Quickwell Hill, St. Davids, Haverfordwest SA62 6PD
St Davids Rugby Club Nun Street, St Davids, Haverfordwest SA62 6BP
Whitesands Bay Two miles north-west of St Davids SA62 6PS
Really Wild Emporium 24 High Street, St Davids SA62 6SD
Oriel-y-Parc Gallery & Visitor Centre, High Street, St Davids SA62 6NW

With thanks to our partners:

TIR A MÔR

FESTIVAL OF LAND AND SEA

Booking is essential on many events due to limited space. Use this QR Code to go directly to the Eventbrite booking, or go to: www.eventbrite.co.uk and search 'Tir a Mor Festival'.

Booking is essential on many events due to limited space. Use this QR Code to go directly to the Eventbrite booking, or go to: www.eventbrite.co.uk and search 'Tir a Mor Festival'.